YESHIVA OF FAR ROCKAWAY

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to introduce you to the Yeshiva of Far Rockaway. The Yeshiva, which is comprised of a high school, bais medrash and kollel, is now well into its 5th decade and is recognized as a premier Torah institution throughout the Yeshiva world.

Enclosed is an application form. We will be limiting acceptance to boys who are committed to learning and growing in Torah and Yiras Shomayim and who have the ability to handle a very strong academic program.

Please return the enclosed application in its entirety along with a $100 application fee. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please note that the submission of an application does not guarantee an interview.

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to call the Yeshiva office at 718-327-7600 or email info@yofr.org

Sincerely,

Rabbi Aaron M. Brafman
מנהל

Rabbi Eli Goldgrab
Principal, General Studies

The Yeshiva has produced over 1,500 successful alumni, of all walks of life and professions. Attendance at the Yeshiva is a privilege, not a right. It is understood that the registration of all students admitted to the school is subject to the following conditions: The school reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any students at any time for any reason which it deems sufficient. Attendance at the school is dependent upon the maintenance of regular and satisfactory work, both in the Hebrew and Secular Departments. The student is required to familiarize himself with and to abide by all regulations of the Yeshiva, including the dress code. Students are expected to uphold the moral principles and good name of the Yeshiva at all times – both in school and in their outside activities.

We hereby certify that the information given in this application is complete and accurate.

We understand the educational policy of your school, and this application is filled with our knowledge, consent and approval .
